

OPERAVISION

Operavision/L'Accademia Mollo-Vetere is a three week intensive program in association with the historic Centro Studi Italiani focusing on the demands of a performing artist in today's world. A chance to see yourself differently as you receive the tools to achieve vocal freedom, advance as an artist , unique but informed by the traditions and correct style, becoming a performer with personality and message. Being the best you can be in service to the music.
